A real welcome awaits visitors. There are many reasons, some of them self evident, which everybody should be identified with a church. There is sufficient diversity among the local congregations to insure satisfaction for every taste.

TO DIMINISH MILITARY CONTROL IN MEXICO
(By Associated Press.)

Mexico City, Oct. 7.—An order has been issued by General Alvaro Obregon, minister of war, abolishing the title and position of "jefe de las armas" throughout the republic. This is taken here to mean one of the initial steps in the diminishing of military control throughout Mexico. Heretofore the powers of the jefe de las armas or military commanders superseded those of the civil authorities and judges. Hereafter, according to Obregon's decree, the commanders of garrisons will have authority over their own men only and will not deal in any way with the civil administration. Those who have been acting as administrators without military command have been ordered to rejoin their regiments or brigades at once.

Miss Frederica Edmunds of New York city has been visiting her niece Mrs. S. B. Stroup.

Miss Sammie Way of Salisbury, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. B. Wheeler, for two weeks, has returned home.

e Mrs. Shuford Entertains
Mrs. E. L. Shuford was hostess to the Friday Afternoon Bridge Club yesterday afternoon. Mrs. J. B. Beard was awarded the club prize for the highest score and Mrs. W. H. Farrar was the lucky winner of the visitor's prize.

A delicious ice course was served after the game. Those playing were Miss Esther Ransom, Mrs. J. B. Beard, Mrs. W. H. Farrar of St. Louis, Mrs. O. M. Royster, Mrs. F. P. Abernethy, Mrs. C. M. Sherrill, Mrs. J. H. Hatcher and Mrs. E. L. Shuford.

Mrs. Carr Hostess
Mrs. E. N. Carr was hostess to the Five W's Friday afternoon. The club has been rearranged into a book club and the program for the year in addition to the reading of the books includes studies of men and women of note. The new books were submitted with favorable criticisms. Mrs. Carr gave a most interesting review of her book "Betty Lane," by Lana Gray. This historic romance promised to be a popular book with the club.

After a live business meeting delightful refreshments in two courses were served. The next meeting will be held with Miss Gertrude Finger October 18.

HICKORY-NEWTON MOTOR LINE IS MAKING GOOD

The Hickory-Newton motor line already has just fixed the hope of its supporters, and the first week of operations has been better than was expected. The automobile makes five trips a day between Hickory and Newton, stopping at Conover, and affords a schedule that is proving popular. Mr. J. Lee Hewitt is manager of the line.

Rev. Cyril E. Bentz, Rector of St. Luke's church Lincolnton and his bride, spent the day with Rev. and Mrs. S. B. Stroup yesterday.

CHRISTIAN UNION ENDS MEETING

The Asheville district of the Christian Endeavor Union held their first meeting as district union in the Grace Reformed church at Newton on October 4 and 5.

Rev. J. C. Andrew, president of the Asheville district union, called on the presidents of the different societies represented to give short talks on the "Consecration of School Life."

The meeting was then turned over to the social committee, for one hour of social pleasure. During this time Miss Holstein, vocal teacher of Catawba College, sang a solo. Miss Schmidt, expression teacher of Catawba college gave several reading selections, which were very much enjoyed. The quartet sang while the refreshments were being served. Everybody got acquainted, and the delegates felt at home with the Newton people, for they gave them such a warm welcome. The meeting closed for the night session.

Officers were chosen as follows:
Rev. J. D. Andrew, Newton, president; Rev. F. B. Rankin, Rutherfordton, vice president; Miss Nora Francis, Waynesville, secretary; Mr. Ezra Hunsucker, Conover, treasurer.

Rev. J. D. Andrew, president of the district union, is a very enthusiastic worker and much is due him and the societies of Newton for the success of the convention.

All of the delegates went to their respective homes with a determination that they would make their societies better and increase the interest in the work.

The delegates attending the convention from Hickory were: Rev. and Mrs. J. G. Garth, Mr. Voorheis Garth, Dr. J. L. Murphy, Miss Mary Murphy, Miss Ruby Satterfield, Miss Mary Doll.

HOLD BUSINESS SESSION

The members of the Corinth Philathea class of the Reformed Sunday school are all urged to be present in the class room Sunday morning at 9:45 when a business session will be held. Officers for the coming year will be elected and other business matters will be brought before the class.

MABEL MILLER, President.
ESSIE ROBINSON, Secretary.

LOOK THE PART

The atmosphere of this big hustling Nation is one of capability and as a natural sequence each man has his part to play.

Be he a professional man or of the mercantile world—no matter what his sphere, let his clothes reflect his ability to do things.

HIGH ART CLOTHES

Everybody knows it by name

Chero-Cola is sold only in the original bottle, sterilized, sealed and labeled at the plant.

Each bottle is filled by machinery—the syrup and carbonated water are accurately measured by machinery, therefore you get the same uniform pleasing flavor in every bottle, which is absolutely impossible under the ordinary soda fountain method.

You can get your CHERO-COLA, "In a Bottle—Through a Straw" at Soda Fountains and other Refreshment Stands.
